Where will your day take you?

Visit nationaltrust.org.uk/using-your-pass to plan your visit, then simply show this pass at a participating National Trust place and come on in.

This pass is valid until 31 December 2026.

Terms and conditions

1. Your National Trust day pass is single-use and is valid once before the date shown, excluding bank holidays and bank holiday weekends. Your pass covers standard admission during advertised opening hours only and excludes parking, paid transport, and paid events.
2. Your pass allows free admission at participating National Trust places for 2 adults and up to 6 children. Adults are those aged 18 or over; children are those aged 5–17 inclusive; under-fives visit free and can be additional to the visitors specified above.
3. Your pass is only valid at participating National Trust places. Please check the following webpage to avoid being charged for admission: nationaltrust.org.uk/using-your-pass. Places managed by English Heritage National Trust for Scotland and other organisations are also exempt.
4. Please note that in the very few circumstances where National Trust members are asked to pay, this will apply to you too.
5. Some National Trust places require booking in advance of visiting to guarantee admission.
6. To redeem your pass, you will need to present this pass in its original form to a team member at your chosen National Trust place.
7. The National Trust reserves the right to refuse or revoke your pass at any time. There is no cash or membership alternative to your pass, and it cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer.
